DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Matsui et al. (US 5,858,270).

The reference discloses a compound 4-trifluoromethoxyphenyl-[4-[difluoro-[4-propylphenyl]methoxy]benzoate, which anticipates the present formula I4. See col. 247, lines 19-42.

4. Claims 1-12 and 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over DE 19,949,333.

The reference discloses that a novel aromatic liquid crystal compound represented by the formula (I) is useful for a liquid crystal medium and display devices (TN and

Art Unit: 1756

STN). See the formulae (If-Ih) from page 8 to page 9. The Y group is defined on page 4, lines 16-35. The L^1 and $L^2 = H$ or F. The reference compounds represented by the formulae (If-Ih) anticipate the claimed compound. The reference further teaches that the secondary compounds (II-XI) used in liquid crystal mixtures are listed from page 10 and page 11. The concentration range of each component is disclosed from page 16, line 63 to page 17 line 5. Also, see the reference claims. The reference anticipates or inherently anticipates the claimed invention. If not anticipated (i.e., the present medium and its LC properties are not exemplified in the reference), it would have been obvious to those skilled in the art to utilize the reference teaching by using compounds of formulae If-Ih (3 out of 8) and substituting for the compound of Ia (exemplified in the reference Examples) to arrive at the claimed invention because the compounds represented by the formulae Ia-Ih are functionally equivalent. The properties of the present claims (threshold and rotational viscosity) are well within the reference teaching. See Examples H-K.
